

A decent death

How shocking it was to watch them when they hanged Saddam Hussein How shocking to see the mayhem how totally insane

The criminal gang who hanged him don't know what they're doing The criminal gang who got him took photos and were booing

We give our inmates a decent death we offer them a classy kill Before they draw their very last breath they even get a last will

We have so much experience in Washington and Beijing Technological excellence continuously improving

So, in the People's Republic you're killed for serious crimes:
like theft of a cultural relic or drunken driving, at times

No such thing as false confession
No proof is circumstantial
No mistakes in our profession Confidence is substantial

We call it confidence
We give you decent deaths
