

War galore

We're bursting with white trash and pride
Enemies got nowhere to hide
We're armed with guns and Moses
Have some tea, while the hockey mums poses

There's always Iran
There's always a new Taliban
There's always a -stan
There's always a new Vietnam

Welcome to the everlasting war
Come on join me watching the costs while they soar
War galore! War galore!

A solid piece of war now and then keeps our guns from rusting again

There's always Iran
There's always a new Taliban
There's always a -stan
There's always a new Vietnam

Have we told you about it?
What should we do without it?

Welcome to the neverending war
Come on join me laughing till we can't take no more
War galore! War galore!
